REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-6 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of an image processing apparatus including a code assigning mechanism configured to assign an identification code to the image data having the detected background dot pattern and accumulated in the second memory the detected background dot pattern is determined by the determining mechanism as substantially identical to the reference dot pattern.

Claims 7-12 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of an image processing apparatus including assigning means for assigning an identification code to the image data having the detected background dot pattern and accumulated in the storing means when the detected background dot pattern is determined by the determining means as substantially identical to the reference dot pattern.

Claims 13-24 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of an image processing method including the step of assigning an identification code to the image data having the detected background dot pattern and accumulated by the accumulating step when the detected background dot pattern is determined by the determining step as substantially identical to the reference dot pattern.

Claims 25-30 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of an image processing method including the step of assigning an identification code to the second image data having the detected background dot pattern and accumulated by the accumulating step when the detected background dot pattern is determined by the determining step as substantially identical to the reference dot pattern.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
